PROTESTS DECISION ON PACIFIC ROADS

Transportation Act Supersedes Sherman Trust Law.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 12. — William Sproule, president of the Southern Pa-

Pacific for twenty-two years, or since 1899.

"The decision of the Supreme Court is that both these transactions are in violation of the Sherman act, although the Sherman act was not passed until 1890, which was five years after the Central Pacific was leased to the Southern Pacific. The growth has been of one system and not two; it has been responsive to the needs of coast communities and producers.

"The decision of the Supreme Court turns upon the Sherman act because the suit was brought by the Government in 1914 under that act. But in this eight years interval a world war has been fought, because of which every business is operating under new conditions, and the Transportation act of 1920, passed by Congress and approved by the President February 28, 1920, is now the governing Federal law for the railroads of the United States to meet the new conditions. That law instructs the Interstate Commerce Commission to prepare and adopt a plan for the consolidation of the railway properties of the United States into a limited number of systems. "The Interstate Commerce Commission has already prepared a plan for consolidating the railroads into a limited rumber of systems. In this tentative plan the Central Pacific and Southern Facific remain together.

"There seems, therefore, to be proper plan the Central Pacific and Southern Hacific remain together.

"There seems, therefore, to be proper motive for direct appeal to the Commissions to the end that power lodged in it under the present law (which is the Transportation act of 1920 be exercised to maintain the operations of this transportation system as a unit justified by the general experience of the people served, and if necessary for the purpose a new power might well be created by appropriate legislation."

ITALY'S BANKING CRISIS

Government Bonds Cut Down

New York Herald Bureau.
Rome, June 12.

Italy's banking crisis is about over, of Signor Stringher, president of the Banca of d'Italia, declared in a meeting here of the Italian Bankers Association. He said that with the establishment of the Banca Nazionale de Credito in place of the defunct Banca Disconto the financial world would again find its balance. He reported that the circulation of banknotes to cover the crash had been reduced to, roughly, 1,000,000,000 lire.
Signor Peano, Minister of the Treasury, stated that the Government was making every effort to balance its budget and to build up the value of its currency. He said that no new debts were being incurred by the State and that in the last year and a half the issuance of Government bonds had been cut down more than 2,500,000,000 lire.

A voluntary petition in bankruptcy was filed in the United States District Court yesterday afternoon by George H. Fearons, Jr., of the rubber import-ing firm of Phelan, Borland & Fear-ons, 11-19 Moore street. He asked the President Sproule Holds Secretary Mellon Says Negotiations Will Not Be Publiely Conducted.

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALI

SAN FRANCISCO, June 12. — William Sproule, president of the Southern Pacific Company, issued a statement today in regard to the threatened disruption of the Southern Pacific lines, in which he said:

"The Central Pacific has been leased to the Southern Pacific for thirty-seven years, or since February, 1885, by unanimous vote of all the stockholders present or represented, who constituted more than five-sixths of the entire capital stock, The Southern Pacific has been the actual owner of the entire capital stock of the reorganized Central Pacific for twenty-two years, or since 1899.

"The decision of the Supreme Court is that both these transactions are in violation of the Sherman act, although the Sherman act was not passed until 1890, which was five years after the Central Pacific. The growth has been of one system and not two; it has been responsive to the needs of coast communities and producers.

"The decision of the Supreme Court turns upon the Sherman act because the suit was brought by the Government is 1914 under that act. But in this eight years interval a world war has been found the presume of which every huminess and gootations. It frequently has been requested to the British Government is prepared to go abaed on refunding the allied debt to the United States don to the United States don the United States departments for refsunding the allied debt to the United States debt to the United States don the United States don the Treasury and State departments for refunding the allied debt to the United States debt to the United States don the United States don the Treasury and State departments for refunding the allied debt to the United States don the United States don the United States don't have refunding of this indebtedness, aggregation of the Supreme Court was stated the newspapers."

It was stated that responses have been received from two Governments is stating their financial status and a basis upon which they are prepared to begin negotiations with the funding commission for the conversion of t partment that the British Government is prepared to go ahead on refunding negotiations. It frequently has been stated by the Treasury that the British loans, which are the largest, will be refunded first.

Secretary Mellon and other officials concerned have no expectation of a definite funding settlement for probably several months. Great Britain has announced payment will be made to the United States of $200,000,000 in interest due September 15, but this has been carried in the budget for the fiscal year 1923, and in effect spent, so it will not in any measure meet the financial burdens and the domestic refunding problems the Treasury faces.

-you may wish securities delivered as collateral; -some of your bonds may be called for redemption;

-stock rights may be issued; -protective committees may be formed; -and other factors may affect your holdings.

Not to have any one of these matters brought to your attention and attended to promptly might result in loss to you.

A solution of the problem is to place your securities in our care, in a Custody Service Account. Then, whereever you may be, we will endeavor to keep you informed of developments in regard to your holdings, and your instructions by mail, telegram or cable will be carried out. Your securities, while in our safe-keeping, are subject only to your control.

In addition, we will collect income and matured principal, and credit or forward it as desired.

If you go abroad the facilities of our European branches will be at your disposal.

At any of our offices you can obtain complete information regarding this service. A booklet, "The Care of Your Securities," will be mailed upon request.
